| 10/1/2025 19:06 | Thanks for the heads up on blueprint. We just met on strategy to attack the mis information out there. Sounds like we need to get to Orem as well. Daschel is someone we trust to put the correct information out there.                                                                                                         | Sent     | [REDACTED]                       | iMessage |

| 10/1/2025 1:15  | The terms of the agreement are being misconstrued to make it seem that Blueprint receives more 50% of the funds being provided for student-athletes.                                                                                                                                                                             | Received | [REDACTED]                       | iMessage |

| 6/19/2025 1:13  | Just got a text back from Kyle after calling him earlier and sending him a text message. He said that he is still working through it and didn't seem to have much interest in discussing.                                              | Received | [REDACTED] | iMessage |
| 6/18/2025 22:14 | I just tried calling you after speaking with Blueprint. It went right to voicemail so not sure if that's something with my connection. Have some new information whenever you have a minute. Thanks                                    | Received | [REDACTED] | iMessage |

| 5/24/2025 14:52 | Happy Saturday, guys! Just an FYI that I reached a tentative agreement with Blueprint Sports last night. We are going to work hard to push it along as quickly as possible, with the goal of having the transfer of ownership be official on/before July 1. We want to make sure that we both work closely with OSU on the announcement/messaging as we roll out all of the changes that are coming. We may want to message it prior to July 1, as they will want to begin their search for an Executive Director. So I assume we will want to do that after the agreement is officially signed between Blueprint and I. Thank you both for all of your help with this! | Received | [REDACTED] | iMessage |
| 5/23/2025 22:23 | Kyle and Blueprint agreed to a deal in principle today for the transition so we will be good to move forward once we finalize our deal with Rob. Sara - can we please find a time next week for us to get on a zoom with Rob to discuss the transition and final points of the agreement?                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | Received | [REDACTED] | iMessage |
| 5/17/2025 3:06  | Kyle's attorney is requesting the full details of our agreement with Blueprint, including years, guaranteed revenue, etc. Do you have any thoughts on this? I want to be a partner in helping facilitate this transition but not sure those are details that should/need to be shared. The OSU-Blueprint agreement is distinct and separate from the agreement between Blueprint and Dam Nation.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | Received | [REDACTED] | iMessage |

She and I are on the same page with everything and putting really good steps in place to make sure everyone is aligned with our processes. I'm feeling great about it.                                                                                                                            | Sent     | [REDACTED]                           | iMessage |

| 3/25/2025 2:03  | From Kyle. Where are we with this?Do you think you can check on the status of my agreement? I thought it should be done by now. Basketball has me negotiating and I'm happy to do it, but I'm really hoping we can wrap it up asap as we discussed when we met. Thanks, man! | Sent     | [REDACTED]               | iMessage |
